

MISSION FOCUS

A Ministry of Presence

Global Missions. Special Offerings. Field Personnel. These and other related terms create mental images of missionaries at work in foreign lands or ministering to special people groups in our homeland (e.g. Sue and Greg Smith, LUCHA ministries in Fredericksburg). It is easy to overlook other ministries endorsed and supported by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (CBF).

One such ministry is that of Chaplains and Pastoral Counselors. Since 1998 CBF has offered endorsement to over 600 chaplains and pastoral counselors. Endorsement by CBF affirms the ministry of chaplains and pastoral counselors and is an official declaration that a person is in good standing as a minister in CBF. To be eligible for endorsement by CBF the chaplain or pastoral counselor must present evidence of clinical pastoral of seminary education, be employed by an agency requiring endorsement, be duly appointed by an agency as volunteer chaplain and have identification with CBF.

Chaplains and Pastoral Counselors minister in a variety of settings including medical centers, the US Armed Forces, Pastoral Counseling Centers, hospice programs, correctional facilities, business and industrial corporations, public safety sources and retirement communities. Consider the example of Julie Rowan, former minister to children and youth, who is currently serving as brigade chaplain in Iraq. She ministers to between 500 to 1000 soldiers through counseling, leading worship services, and providing resources including Bibles. Hundreds of chaplains and pastoral counselors are serving in similar situations around the world.

Your support of CBF, through your faithful budget contributions and the Offering for Global Missions, are essential to sustaining the ministries of our field personnel, chaplains and pastoral counselors in "being the presence of Christ". Give prayerfully and generously.

ORANGE BAPTIST CHURCH

Ordinary People, Extraordinary God!

The CHRONICLE

JULY 2013

OBC welcomes new members!

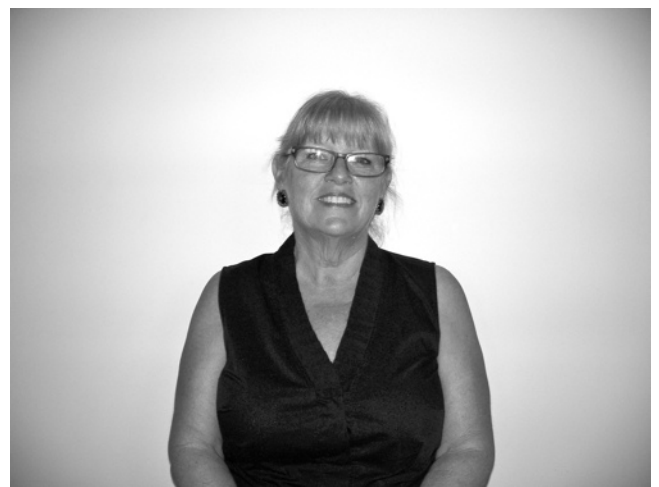

Alice Jacobs

Alice joins OBC by transfer of letter. She was born in Rapidan, Virginia and grew up in Orange. She married Bill Jacobs in 1974 and moved to West Chester, Pa. Upon Bill's retirement from The Boeing Company in 1978, they moved to Madison, Virginia to live in a beautiful log cabin. Last August, due to health issues they moved into Dogwood Village Senior Living. They find it a beautiful place to live.

Alice has four daughters, three of which are members of OBC and one who lives in Lexington, Kentucky. Bill has a son and daughter who also live in the area.

Alice says, "My walk with the Lord has filled my life with so many blessings, none more cherished than being a part of this church family. It is a real treat to be back among so many friends and family here at Orange Baptist."

Audrey Kammerude

Audrey was born and raised just outside the beltway in Northern Virginia. She and her husband, Gary, feel like they escaped seven years ago when they relocated to Orange. She admits it was a bit of a culture shock at first, but in no time at all they acclimated to the relaxing pace of small town life. Between them they have five grown children. His four – Pam, Jeff, David and Kristi - have given them eleven grandchildren. Audrey has a daughter, Anna, attending Virginia Tech working on her degree in the College of Natural Resources.

Audrey grew up in Parkwood Baptist Church in Annandale, VA and graduated from West Springfield High School. She has a somewhat eclectic background throughout her career, having done a little bit of everything: dental assisting, airline accounting, legal secretary, office manager. Most recently she has been enjoying her craft/art business creating wind chimes, lanterns, garden art, lamps and chandeliers from recycled glass, china and other recycled materials. Gary is enjoying retirement from his career with an international medical supply company.

Audrey says, "I am so looking forward to making many new friends here at Orange Baptist Church. So many wonderful people came up and welcomed me with warm smiles and words and a lot of hugs. It was a little overwhelming! I'm really happy and excited to be a part of such a loving church. Thank you."

UPCOMING BUSINESS AT JULY MEETING

Dear Friends in Christ,

Words alone cannot express the feelings of love that Joan and I, along with our entire family, experienced during the time before, during and after my mother's recent death. The calls, cards, visits, and food were all overwhelming and the wonderful comments regarding her being a blessing to everyone she met, brings joy to us all. To those of you that helped with her "Celebration of Life Service" we say a special THANK YOU for helping make it a beautiful occasion.

We are truly blessed to be members of Orange Baptist Church! God's love to each of you.

Bill, Joan and Family
